Instructor: Tracy Greene Mintz, LCSW

Tracy Greene Mintz is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker, trainer and long-term care consultant based in Southern California. She is a nationally recognized expert on the topic of Relocation Stress Syndrome (Transfer Trauma) in the elderly and offers workshops and online instruction to clinicians and non-clinical staff in an array of disciplines that serve seniors. She has trained hundreds of nursing home workers on medically-related social services, geriatric behavioral health and elder abuse prevention.

Ms. Greene Mintz has worked with seniors and their families at all levels of care, from independent living through end-of-life since 2000. She holds a master's degree in social work and a gerontology certificate from the Institute on Aging at Portland State University in Oregon and master's degree in film and television from UCLA. She is a member of the California Society for Clinical Social Work and NASW, of which she has served on the board of the CA chapter.

Industry Leader in Social Service Consultation & SSD Training since 2008.
